Fabrifoam® Materials Work

Fabrifoam is a patented, fabric/foam material specifically created and designed for the treatment and prevention of musculoskeletal conditions. Fabrifoam provides Healthcare Professionals with a wide assortment of superior and unique compression/support wraps, straps and devices to meet your therapy needs.

Why choose Fabrifoam?

fabrifoam® Advantages:

- Breathable - Wicks away moisture
- Resists Migration - Stays where you put it!
- Lightweight - Low-profile
- Varying compression - Optimal results
- Velcro® closure - Easy application
- Safe, washable, durable & cost effective
- Ideal for Pediatric & Geriatric use
- Made in the U.S.A.

Latex Free

Nustim Wrap

- Far superior alternative to neoprene wraps, for securing electrodes, hot or cold packs and customized supports
- Useful in treatment and therapies of bio-mechanical ailments
- Allows for a moderate degree of two directional stretch

Super Wrap

- An exciting breakthrough in adjustable compression and support therapy
- Allows for a very high degree of multi-directional elasticity with adjustable compression and support

The PSC

- Dynamic orthosis
- Totally unique treatment for Plantar Fasciitis
- Bio-mechanically repositions the foot into the neutral position
- Simulates low-dye taping

Bunion Sling

- Effectively repositions the hallux for maximum comfort and support
- Minimizes the progression and reduces the discomfort of an inflamed bunion
- Soft, lightweight device fits easily in most shoes

Thumb Spica

- Provides adjustable compression and support
- Restricts movement of thumb while allowing full hand movement
- Lightweight and comfortable

CarpalGard

- Relief for Carpal Tunnel Syndrome, wrist pain, wrist strain and arthritis.
- Offers support and comfort while allowing for adjustable compression
- Delivers semi-rigid or rigid support in a thin, slip resistant device